WORSHIP: God Talk: Reclaiming Christian Vocabulary – A Sermon Series for Lent, 7:45, 9 and 11:15 services
Many religious terms have been either overused or misunderstood, so that they have lost their meaning for us. Can we renew our understanding of them, and thereby renew their meaning in our own lives?

On the five Sundays of Lent, at each of the three morning services, the Rev. Alan Gates will deliver a sermon on one of the following key vocabulary words of our faith: Repentance, Righteousness, Redemption, Atonement, Sanctification.

ADULT FORUM: The Art of Theological Concepts, Sundays in Lent, 10 to 11 a.m. in the Dining Room
In collaboration with the Rector's sermon series in Lent entitled "God Talk: Reclaiming Christian Vocabulary," our Adult Forum sessions will focus on the various ways artists of all sorts have interpreted, translated, and commented upon these theological words of our Christian Story. Using media from stained glass windows and sacred music to sculpture, theater, paintings and literature, artists have helped to shape our understanding of religious terms alongside preachers and teachers and theological writers. Join us for a view into the world of visual and performing art as it broadens our appreciation of God Talk. Watch Parish Notes for details concerning our guest speakers and specific areas of expertise. 2/26 topic: The Art of Repentance

Join us for a challenging and enlightening examination of the changing identity of "Emergence Christianity." Using materials prepared by Phyllis Tickle, an authority on religion in America, we will survey two thousand years of Western history and identify the great upheavals that occur every 500 years, which Tickle refers to as "Giant Rummage Sales."

We will gather each Wednesday for a simple supper, a time for study and conversation, and a brief worship service. Parish clergy from both congregations will facilitate the discussions. For meal-planning purposes, RSVP to the Parish Office at (216) 932 -5815 to let us know of your plans to attend. Christ Episcopal Church is located at 3445 Warrensville Center Road, Shaker Heights.
