All Things Advent
Join us at 5 p.m. in Tucker Hall on December 1, in the season of anticipation and preparation! All Things Advent is an evening of seasonal merriment and fun. Enjoy a simple soup supper, decorate an Advent wreath, play Advent Trivia, plant a waiting bulb and more. This is a perfect chance for the St. Paul’s community to come together and celebrate the start of the new church year. Come craft and catch up with friends. See you there!

Advent Lessons and Carols
Experience the beauty and holiness of the Advent Season at St. Paul’s annual service of Lessons and Carols on Sunday, December 8, at 5 p.m. Enjoy a handbell prelude beginning at 4:30 p.m., the candlelight procession at 5 p.m., the reading of scripture interspersed with anthems and hymns, and a carillon recital following the service.

The lessons will be read this year by representatives from St. Paul’s community partners: Dorothy Moulthrop, Chief Program Officer, Open Doors Academy; Lonny Gatlin, Chef, Bellwether Farm; Kathryn Tschiegg, Executive Director, Central American Medical Outreach; Heather Pederson, Dean of Students, EDWINS Leadership and Restaurant Institute; and Amber Gerace, Board of Directors, United Protestant Campus Ministries. St. Paul’s clergy will co-officiate.

This event is a wonderful opportunity to invite family and friends to St. Paul’s. Make this worship experience an Advent tradition!

THE WINTER ONE-ACT
In St. Paul’s second annual Winter One-Act presented by CAST (Christian Action through Student Theatre), the young people of our parish and their friends will take us back to the 1950s. There’s a storekeeper in dire straits, a town that rallies around him, an angel, and…a whistle? The storyline should sound at least a little familiar! Come see Shaker Heights freshman Anna Welsh’s CAST directorial debut of “It’s a Cool Life,” a slightly-updated take on the Christmas classic It’s a Wonderful Life. There’s plenty of humor and heart, as well as some old-school rock and roll, with a cast of dozens!

Find Stillness in this Season of Advent
Anne Morrow Lindbergh wrote Gift from the Sea more than 60 years ago, yet her words are still relevant today. In the introduction to the 50th anniversary of the book, Lindbergh’s daughter, Reeve, offers highlights of her mother’s life. Anne was the first woman ever to win the National Geographic Society’s Hubbard Medal for her aviation and exploration adventures. She was a best-selling author and received the National Book Award in 1938 for Listen! The Wind. She raised five children. At the age of 75, she hiked down into Haleakala Crater in Hawaii to spend the night in a volcano. She lived a full life.

In Gift from the Sea, Anne shares how she found the inner peace that allowed her to live the fullest life. Reeve writes (p. xi), “In honest reflection upon her own experience, in trying to live from a core of inner stillness while actively responding, as we all must do, to the ‘here and the now,’ my mother quietly set herself free, into her own life and into all life. By writing Gift from the Sea, she found a new way to live in the world, for herself and for others.” Relish these words: from a core of inner stillness she set herself free into all of life.

The season of Advent invites us into the stillness. Perhaps the stillness is found in the early morning before getting out of bed, or in the evening before sleep comes. In the stillness, we reflect on the purpose of Jesus coming into this world. How does that purpose inform my life? What do I have to give? Who am I? In the stillness, we find our core, and there we know God. From our core, we live a full life.

Anne writes (p. 38), “When one is a stranger to oneself then one is estranged from others too. If one is out of touch with oneself, then one cannot touch others. How often in a large city, shaking hands with my friends, I have felt the wilderness stretching between us. Both of us were wandering in arid wastes, having lost the springs that nourished us—or having found them dry. Only when one is connected to one’s own core is one connected to others, I am beginning to discover. And, for me, the core, the inner spring, can best be found through solitude.” May we all be reminded that finding time for stillness in the busyness of the holiday season is precisely how we are able to live life fully.

Blessings for this Advent season,

The Rev. Jeanne Leinbach, Rector

ADVENT @ ST. PAUL’S

Portraits of Homelessness Comes to St. Paul’s
St. Paul’s will host the Lutheran Metropolitan Ministry’s Portraits of Homelessness exhibit from November 26 through December 16.

The Portraits of Homelessness collection features 45 photographs and stories of residents from the Lutheran Metropolitan Ministry (LMM) Men’s Shelter at 2100 Lakeside in Cleveland.

According to Lydia Bailey, Coordinator of Volunteers at LMM and creator of the exhibit, “When you see the expression on a person’s face; hear the inflection in a person’s voice; work with a person who is homeless and know their strengths; begin to know their challenges — you pick up on the individual. These are individuals with concerns and hopes like yours and mine. Through this show, I hope to convey their gifts and vital personalities as well as the confusing, fearful and damaging elements of homelessness. It’s gratifying to have recorded the stories and photographs of these individuals who feel largely invisible; who feel loss living in a shelter and on the street. Stories can help address that loss — uncovering who the person is; what they most love and long for; their deepest hopes and concerns.”

The Men’s Shelter is the largest shelter in Ohio, serving more than 4,500 men who are homeless each year. The photography exhibit has been showing throughout the Greater Cleveland area since 2010, including Cleveland’s City Hall. This is the second time it has come to St. Paul’s.

Meet Joyce Wagner

by Lia Snyder

On Sunday November 17th, a group of St. Paul’s youth met with Joyce “Joy” Wagner to hear her life story. Joy began her story by stating, “God has always been with me. I talk to Him like He is right next to me and He listens.” This statement of faith became more remarkable as she reminisced about her life and the serious stroke she had just over two years ago. She now lives at Judson.

In the 1960s, a high school aged Joy found herself pregnant and unmarried. Facing the daunting challenge of motherhood, Joy married her high school sweetheart and settled into her new life raising a daughter. A year later the couple welcomed a second daughter to their family. Joy remembers years filled with daddy-daughter dates and ballroom dancing. Their family was active in church.

Tragically, her husband died suddenly at the age of 42, leaving her to support their teenage daughters alone. She prayed to God for answers and help. A sign from God came in the form of a low-paying bank teller job with benefits for herself and daughters. Making her way up in the bank, she found purpose in working as a loan underwriter, giving others the chance to follow their dreams of owning their own business. Working at the bank also allowed Joy to save up for travels around the world. Joy has traveled across Europe, the Caribbean, and up the Danube to Budapest.

In August of 2017, Joy and a friend were traveling on a riverboat cruise up the Rhine. After not showing up to meet her friend, Joy was discovered in her cabin unconscious on the floor. She was taken immediately to the local clinic, where it was discovered that Joy had suffered two strokes in under an hour with a 3% chance of survival. She was flown to the Cleveland Clinic, where she awoke eight weeks later from a coma to learn she was paralyzed on both sides of her body and had lost the ability to speak.

As resilient as ever, Joy set out on her path to recovery. She learned to speak at a painstakingly slow rate, from basic sounds, the alphabet, and finally working to master the cadence of her voice again. Throughout rehabilitation, Joy never lost her sense of humor or wavered in her faith. In telling her story Joy reminded all of us, “We are not our bodies. We are our minds.” Praying to God, Joy overcame all odds and regained control over the right side of her body. Even as her voice quavered from shooting nerve pain, she explained that God had given her a gift. She could feel again.

Through sharing her story, Joy hopes to inspire others to see God in their lives. She shared with us from memory a Bible passage she reads every day: Luke 12:22-32. “It inspires me every day to go on,” she said. I hope each of you take the time to read it yourself and reflect on the blessings in your life.

Many thanks to Joy Wagner for taking the time to meet with us.

Advent Series: A Place Called Home

In conjunction with the Portraits of Homelessness exhibit on display at St. Paul’s in December, the Adult Formation Team has planned an Advent Sunday Forum Series entitled A Place Called Home, which we hope will move us from the realities of homelessness in Cleveland to classic literary and personal narratives around a sense of “home,” and, ultimately, into the blessings of Christmas.

Please plan to join us at 10:10 a.m. in the Dining Room on these Sundays in December.

December 1: The Men’s Shelter at 2100 Lakeside — Lutheran Metropolitan Ministries (LMM) Men’s Shelter at 2100 Lakeside is the largest shelter in the state of Ohio, serving up to 350 men per night with an additional 30-60 beds available at partner overflow sites. Michael Sering, Vice President of Housing & Shelter at LMM, will give a local overview of homelessness in Cleveland. Shelter residents will speak about their experiences. St. Paul’s parishioner Jan Hart will also share about her own ministry at 2100 Lakeside.

December 8: Advocacy for the Homeless — LMM staff members Margie Glick, Director of Advocacy, and Annie Holden, Employment Specialist, will offer a national overview of homelessness with advocacy steps, an interactive quiz on homelessness and lots of Q&A. Shelter residents will also speak.

December 15: The Journey Home in Greek & Roman Literature and Art — Why and when does one leave home? To what lengths would one go to return? What does one do when home no longer exists? Dr. Timothy Wutrich, Senior Instructor of Classics at Case Western Reserve University, will explore the meaning of home in Homer’s Iliad and Odyssey and Vergil’s Aeneid. We will look at texts and images from the pre-Christian Mediterranean world in an attempt to understand what home meant for early Christians and what it might mean for us today.

December 22: Mistletoe Memories of Home— Do you remember your earliest Christmases? What do you remember and why? John Orlock, a playwright and professor of English at Case Western Reserve University compiled — through extensive interviews — the Christmas memories of residents in a Minneapolis Lutheran nursing home. In addition to reading excerpts from this project, Orlock will share insights on how to engage family and friends about their Christmas memories: a rewarding process to bring light, joy, and spiritual mystery to this religious holiday in bleak midwinter.

Take a Tour of St. Paul’s

Do you know where the three Diocesan seals are in St. Paul’s? How about the movie projection booth? Where can you find the image of a Nazi soldier? And just what did Dr. Albert Schweitzer have to say about our organ? Find out the answers to these questions and more by taking an architectural tour of St. Paul’s.

William Vodrey will lead an hour-long tour, beginning at 1 p.m. on Sunday, December 1, in the Narthex. Whether you’ve been at St. Paul’s for many years or less than one year, there’s always more to discover about the wonderful space in which we all gather. Come learn more about the art and architecture of St. Paul’s.

Sign Up for the Greens Workshop

The annual Greens Workshop will be held on Thursday, December 5, at 6:30 p.m. in the Dining Room. Instructors will guide you to make a table arrangement, a boxwood tree, and/or a swag for your door. Everyone goes home with a unique and beautiful decoration for their home!

The workshop is open to all, including children. The cost is $22 for one arrangement, $35 for two. A bag of greens is $20 with the makings for either a centerpiece or a boxwood tree.

One dollar from each paid arrangement will be donated to St. Luke’s Episcopal Church for outerwear for kids in need. If you would like to make an additional donation to help purchase Winter Wear for those served by St. Luke’s, we will gratefully accept it.

Pizza, fruit, cookies, water, coffee, and cider will be available. To sign up, call Lee Deininger, (440) 289-9044; or email leedeininger@ameritech.net. We will have a sign up table in Tucker Hall on Sunday, December 1.

Gallery Opening

The Nicholson B. White Gallery presents its Winter Show, The Power of Ten. Please join us for an opening reception on Friday, December 6, from 5 to 7 p.m.

A group of ten artists (The Tens), who work with fiber and textiles, will display their work. The Tens are Deb Berkebile, Barb Lind, Ann Kniecke, Joann Giordano, Ruta Marino, Amy Reed, Sandy Shelenberger, Mary Ann Tipple, Kathleen VanMeter, and Martha Young. The group gathers together monthly to help each other by offering constructive criticism on works in progress, advising on useful techniques, and sharing information on exhibitions to view or exhibiting opportunities. Some of the current members of The Tens have shown at St. Paul’s before. We welcome all of them for the Winter Show, and hope you will enjoy their unique creations! The show runs through February 23.

These groups meet on a regular basis from September through May.

Advent Discipline: Will You Help Us Make 500 Personal Care Kits?

St. Paul’s has participated in the Homeless Stand Down Personal Care Kit project for 17 years. This year, we are inviting individuals and families to make it their Advent discipline!

The Homeless Stand Down (HSD) is a one-day event presented by Hands On Northeast Ohio, which provides resources for individuals and families facing poverty and homelessness. An estimated 1,500 guests enjoy access to social service providers, haircuts, medical screenings, live entertainment, professional portraits, breakfast and lunch, and free winter clothing, personal care kits, bus passes and much more. This year, the HSD will be held on Saturday, January 11.

This year our curate, the Rev. Brian Bechtel, will be distributing Ziploc bags and lists of the needed personal care items on Sundays in December. Shop for the items and place them into the 1-gallon Ziploc bag, marked M for male and F for female. Place the assembled kits in the box marked “Homeless Stand Down” in Tucker Hall throughout the month of December. Make as many as you like; our goal this year is 500 kits!

Loaves & Fishes Christmas Dinner, December 11, 5 p.m.

Each year our Loaves & Fishes Christmas Dinner provides seasonal food and joy to the community at 79th Street and Euclid Avenue. This is a really neat event, with several different types of volunteer opportunities. Volunteers who sit and eat with our guests experience a truly meaningful connection.

Here’s how you can be involved:

- Volunteer on the day of the event. We have various shifts between 2:30 and 6:30 p.m. Location: New Life at Calvary, 79th & Euclid. More details below.
- Help prepare food & gifts 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday December 7, at St. Paul’s.
- Donate $25 toward the purchase of a spiral-sliced ham for the dinner.
- Cook a turkey breast or cookies at home and deliver to St. Paul’s.
- Volunteer Opportunities on the day of the dinner, Wednesday, December 11: We need folks to transport food and supplies to and from the location, to prep food in the kitchen, and to help set up and decorate – let’s make it festive! We need people to clean up and to offer their voices for musical cheer! Most of all, we need volunteers who will come eager to sit down and eat good food while sharing a helping of humanity with those we serve. Dinner begins at 5 p.m.

Sign up with Jennie Kaffen and Julie Dornback in Tucker Hall on Sundays, December 1 & 8.

Messiaen’s La Nativité

The fullness of the Christian tradition comes to life at St. Paul’s when on Sunday, January 12, at 4 p.m. organist Karel Paukert offers his annual performance of La Nativité du Seigneur (The Birth of the Lord) by Olivier Messiaen. Please join us for this powerful musical proclamation of the profound mystery of Jesus’ birth.

IN JANUARY

This is all followed by a Christmas party at Leah’s (the official St. Paul’s Youth Ministry Party House). All youth, young adults, friends, and their parents are welcome.

OUTREACH

Habitat for Humanity Triple House Dedication

The public is invited to a triple home dedication on Saturday, December 21, at 11 a.m. in the St. Rocco Gymnasium, 3205 Fulton Road, Cleveland. This fall, St. Paul’s outreach dollars have supported a Habitat for Humanity project led by Kathy and Jamie Hogg, which included work on these houses being dedicated. Here’s one of the St. Paul’s work teams: (l to r) Paul Flowers, Rob Hogg, Ginger Ratcliffe, Jamie Hogg, Lamar Ratcliffe, Bob Seaman. Please contact Kathy and Jamie if you are interested in joining their team, khogg75@gmail.com.

Loaves & Fishes Volunteers

Dozens of folks do their part each month to serve a community meal at New Life at Calvary Church at 79th & Euclid in Cleveland. A special shout out to Nancy & John Vitale, for turning our September Loaves & Fishes dinner into a cookout! The Vitales generously purchased two grills and all of the meat, buns and charcoal. Our guests were delighted with the meal. The grills were donated to Calvary for future cookouts. This is a great example of folks seeing a need and going above and beyond! Thanks also to Carol and Jeff Spero, who hosted a terrific potluck supper for all our Loaves & Fishes volunteers. It was cool to see entrée cooks, cookie bakers, food transporters and servers all together in one place!

STEWARDSHIP

Growing a Loving Community

Thank you to all those who submitted a pledge to the 2020 Annual Fund. Your gifts enable us to maintain the myriad ministries of St. Paul’s.

As of November 20, we have received 274 pledges and gifts toward the 2020 program year for a total of $1,194,000. There are 126 households who pledged or made a gift to the 2019 annual fund that have not yet responded to the 2020 campaign. The support of ALL parishioners is critical in enabling us to reach our pledge goal of $1,550,000 to ensure that all programs can be maintained at current levels. If you have not yet submitted your pledge for the coming year, please do so as soon as possible. Thank you!

Year-end Giving

Increase your gift to St. Paul’s by donating appreciated stock or securities. This is easily done by instructing your stockholder in writing to have the gifted stock transferred to the St. Paul’s Episcopal Church brokerage account.

If you are over 70 1/2, you may be able to make a tax-free charitable gift directly from your IRA to St. Paul’s and satisfy your annual required minimum distribution. The IRA charitable rollover became permanent in 2015 allowing donors to make direct contributions of up to $100,000 per year to qualified charities.

All gifts must be postmarked on or before December 31 for your gift to count during this tax year. Please consult your financial or tax advisor to see if these giving options are right for you. For more information, contact Pam O’Halloran, (216) 932-5815.

NEWCOMER PROFILE

Meet Suzette & Bruce Reynolds

Suzette Reynolds grew up on farms her family owned in Minnesota and then in Wisconsin. It was hard work! During those formative years, she thought she wanted to be a nun and also a nurse, but when she graduated from the University of Wisconsin she had a degree in sociology with a minor in political science. Things change!

After college Suzette worked at an activity center for people with autism and intellectual disabilities. Upon moving to Cleveland with her new husband, Bruce, she was employed by the renowned psychologist Sylvia Rimm. She now does part-time elder care work for Comfort Keepers, acts as co-president of the Cuyahoga Mission Area Episcopal Church Women, and is in the Education for Ministry program here at St. Paul’s. In her somewhat limited free time, Suzette enjoys gardening and loves to sing. She used to do intricate craft work, creating 16-point paper Bavarian Stars and decorative eggs that opened with actual hinges, but things change!

Bruce was not “into” crafts but he was a Boy Scout in Bedford where he grew up and was raised in the Methodist Episcopal Church. In the Vietnam era, he attended Kent State University but after two years there, he enlisted in the Navy and attended Hospital Corps School to become a Medic. While stationed in Michigan for four years he unfortunately developed Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder.

He went on to attend Nazarene Bible College in Colorado Springs and became the pastor of churches in Michigan and, later, in Ohio. But during his time at Nazarene, a nice young lady needed a ride to a Warren Report discussion he was planning to attend. So he drove Suzette there in his Volkswagen. After dating for a while, he decided to pop the question while they were having a romantic paddle in a canoe on a lake. Little did Suzette know that if she said “NO” he planned on tipping her over in the canoe!

The couple eventually settled in Parma and for twenty years Bruce navigated buses for the City of Bedford. Stamp collecting and movies are some favorite pastimes, and he has attended AA for 27 years.

One of their three grown children, a son, lives with Bruce and Suzette, while their oldest son lives in Portland, OR and their youngest, a daughter, lives in California. They also have a dog and a cat who, as all pet owners know, never really grow up.

St. Matthew’s Episcopal Church in Brecksville was their previous parish but they decided to switch to St. Paul’s out of a desire for a more inclusive parish community. We feel very fortunate that they did. Please welcome Bruce and Suzette!
